Dear Professor Festinger,

Thank you very much for your application for participation in the conference. We have pleasure in sending you further informations.

The Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences will be pleased by paying your registration fee, your hotel and living expenses (full pension) in Prague. The Social Science Research Council (New York), through the generosity of the Ford Foundation, will be able to reimburse the expenses of your transportation (jet tourist or economy fare as maximum).

Enclosed please find General information (June) and an application for the Czechoslovak entry visa. Please submit the filled up application form to the nearest Czechoslovak diplomatic representation. You will obtain the visa free of charge. The Conference participants and accompanying persons, who have received their visa through the mediation of the Organizing Committee, are not obliged to exchange the minimum amount of money per day. According to their wishes, they can exchange any amount they want.

Looking forward to see you in Prague.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely

Dr Jaromír J a n o u š e k
